Charlotte Brown Goes to Brooke For Training

Private Charlotte Brown, 22407 S. Denker ave., Torrance, a member of the Women's Army Corps recently left First WAC Training center, at Fort Des Moines, for technical training at Brooke General Hospital, Ft. Sam Houston, Texas. Upon completion of this special training she will be assigned to duty in one of the Army general hospitals.

In announcing the successful completion of the WAC hospital recruiting program, General of the Army George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff, U. S. Army, states that the response to the Army's urgent need for trained hospital personnel has been gratifying. Virtually all women enlisted in the WAC since February 1 have chosen and met the requirements for hospital service.

Demand for WACs is expected to continue heaviest in the fields of administrative and hospital work, but additional numbers will be required from time to time in virtually all branches of the Army.

LUNCHEON GUESTS

Mrs. Jennie Moore entertained as her luncheon guests Friday, Mrs. Amy Cowen, of El Paso, Texas; Mrs. Gwendolyn Knudsen of Lomita and Mrs. May Sidebotham, of this city.
